

Pythagorean Theorem

$$A^2 + B^2 = C^2$$

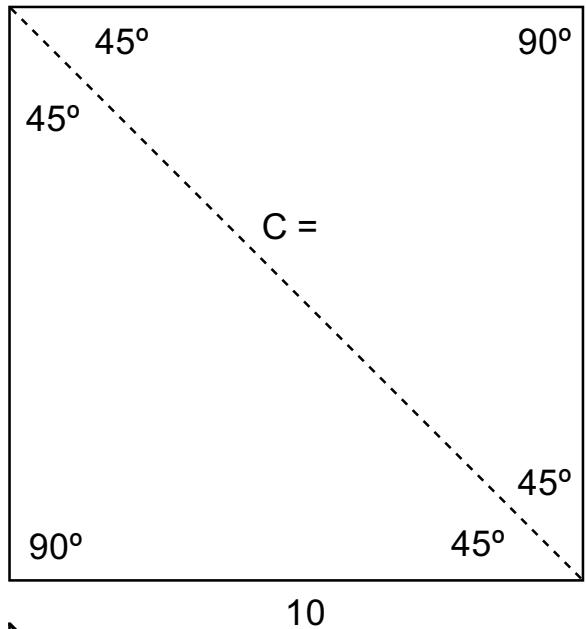

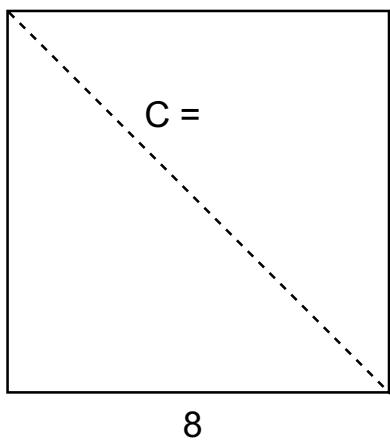

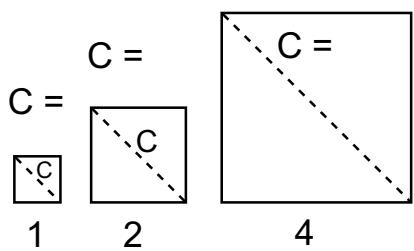

IMPORTANT FACTS:

This is actually Trigonometry, where we measure angles to calculate distances.

The total of all 3 angles in any triangle always equals 180°

The $45^\circ - 45^\circ - 90^\circ$ right triangle is half of a square.

Squares:

45° Right Triangles:

